270. One of the engines is blown. Never owned a jet boat so not sure what I'm looking at. Seller says the starboard engine rod is thru the block. Wondering how much that would cost to fix or if it would even be worth the time. Any help is appreciated.

I have a 1998 Yamaha Exciter 220 with twin 110's. They are in immaculate condition and beautiful. The other day I pulled off the transducer bracket to replace it and within 24 hours there was water filled in the ski hatch and half filled the engine compartment.
