Biklen and Robert Bogdan presented an analysis of children's literature as it relates to the portrayal of people with disabilities. In this piece, the authors describe 10 common stereotypes associated with the portrayal of people with disabilities. (Note: The eleventh stereotype is one that the current authors have commonly noted but

Disability Bias in Children's Literature
In a similar vein, Bogdan and Biklen (1982) offer a useful summary of the characteristics of qualitative research. Their views are paraphrased as follows: Firstly, it involves a naturalistic setting wherein the context of activities is integral to the evaluation; Secondly, this does not ordinarily involve the reduction of data into numbers.
