Best Kept Secrets of Versailles - Travel

Versailles is one of the most photographed “beauty spots” in the world. Yet masses of tourists make it virtually impossible to imagine the splendor of the palace as it existed during the ancien régime—from the time of Louis XIV, the Sun King, in the seventeenth century until the fall of Napoleon III in 1870. But with the support of Catherine Pégard, president of Versailles' supervisory board, four talented photographers were granted unlimited access to Versailles when the château ...
